Ta med något att äta och dricka i pausen.

Välkomna!

PS! Nedan en presentation av dansledaren!

Evaggelos Tsaganos was born in 1976 in Thessaloniki, the capital of Macedonia (Greece). His first dance steps were made in the city of Lamia (Roumeli) where he also spent his childhood years.

He gave his first lessons as a greek folk dance instructor in the city of Serres (East Macedonia) in 1997, while studying in the local University of Physical Education with specialty in Greek Folk Dancing and also he is holder of Master's Degree (MSc) in Education of Dance.

Since 1997, after personal research and record keeping, he is teaching Greek Folk Dance not only in dancing groups, but also in seminars and conferences throughout Greece and abroad (Germany, France, Belgium, Australia, Italy etc.) He has also participated in many scientific meetings and conferences, having presented projects with practical and theoretical approach.

Usually he teaches Greek Folk Dances from all regions of Greece because he has done personal research in these regions.

Finally, he is a self-experienced musician in greek traditional percussion instruments (toublerleki, ntefi, ntaouli) and he participates in various music groups performing in concerts and parties throughout Greece and abroad.
